General Information

The Association of Siamese Architects under Royal Patronage (ASA) is pleased to announce the 2024 architectural workshop through a series of the Live Design Discourse (LDD) program.

LDD is one of the Four-Nations activities, initiated since 2017 in collaboration with the architecture institutes of 4 countries consisting of ASA of Thailand, Ikatan Arsitek Indonesia (IAI), Singapore Institute of Architects (SIA), and Pertubuhan Akitek Malaysia (PAM).

LDD aims to be a forum that brings together architecture students and young practitioners among alliance nations to encourage the exchange of knowledge, experience, and culture, and strengthen the bonds of architectural collaboration between the four countries.

Students will be joined on-site by a professional architects in practice from each countries, as well as a team of local experts. Participants will also have the opportunity to collaborate with fellow students.

In this edition, IAI will be the organizer for the 5-day intensive workshop providing participants with a forum for problem-solving, collective learning, and practice in a deeply collaborative process through intersectional perspectives. The Workshop offers new paths for exploration and engagement that can help navigate the intricacies and challenges of architectural work.
